Meet the Monkeys

People often ask what our monkeys eat! One of the healthy treats we provide, both at The Monkey College and in homes, are unsalted walnuts. Thanks to you, we are able to purchase the 100 pounds of walnuts that our students eat each year!

Our monkeys enjoy smashing the nuts to release all the delicious oils before they eat them. And as you can see in My Snack, they like to eat their nuts in peace!

Our Festivale Co-Chairs

Eric Reddy and Sarah Davis, Co-Chairs of The Monkey Helpers' Annual Festivale, are eager to greet you at the event on October 21! Eric is a member of the Helping Hands Board of Directors and chairs the Board Nominating Committee and Governance Committee as well as the Development Committee. He also works for Bidding for Good and has helped grow the online auction each year!

Sarah has been on the Festivale Friends Committee for several years. "I became aware of Helping Hands through a friend. I was amazed and inspired by the extraordinary people and their stories. It started out with Festivale and grew into so much more. The ability to provide companionship and give an amount of freedom is priceless. I am proud to support such a life changing program."
