For love and peanut butter...

Valentine’s Day is just around the corner and we cannot help but notice the love in the air. Because, honestly, love is what helps fuel our program. Love for our monkeys, love for our recipients, love for our foster parents, and love for our organization. Right now, the love is building between our newest recipient and their monkey helper and we are just so touched that you are part of their story. We couldn’t do this without you love and support, and we are grateful to you.

We also loved being featured in the February issue of Woman’s Day Magazine! We also loved being featured in the February issue of Woman’s Day Magazine! What a great opportunity to share our work with a wider audience. If you haven’t seen the article, you can read it in full on our website here.

We also want to thank Stephanie Hindman, Aaron Rissler, and Erin Seiden as new members of the Board of Directors of Helping Hands: Monkey Helpers.

Leadership Changes

In January we welcomed Judith Hindman, Aaron Rissler, and Erin Seiden as new members of the Board of Directors. In the past few years, our Board has been growing in experience and expertise and we will be so grateful to have these three new members as we have more important strategic goals to achieve.

Meet a Monkey: Sophie!

Sophie is a super special Capuchin who we originally referred to as our little starlet because if you haven’t seen this article before, Sophie was paired with Judy until her passing in 2013, when she returned to The Monkey College.

She has been featured in both a short media piece (Great Big Story) and a full-length article in the February issue of Woman’s Day Magazine.
